Panel Discussions: April 17, 1:30 – 4:30p

Description: This unique event is designed to give a 360-degree view of health and entrepreneurship. Three panels will include (a) Investors, (b) Entrepreneurs, and (c) Professionals, who will speak about how they evaluate their investments, their ventures, and help entrepreneurs manage their health during the process of launching a startup. Also, get a glimpse of the leading research being done today on entrepreneurial health and well-being.
