

Management & Entrepreneurship Department
Kelley School of Business
Indiana University Clinical (non-tenure track) Faculty Position

Position Summary

The Management & Entrepreneurship Department at Indiana University-Bloomington invites applications for a non-tenure track Clinical Faculty position in Entrepreneurship. The rank is open but the Assistant level is preferred. This is a teaching position and research is not involved.

Qualifications

Candidates must possess a doctoral degree (ABD considered) in Entrepreneurship, Strategic Management, or a related discipline with a specialization in entrepreneurship. Proven effectiveness in teaching is required.

Additional Information

Salary and benefits are highly competitive. Teaching support is available through the department. Contact Donald F. Kuratko (dkuratko@indiana.edu) or Greg Fisher (fisherg@indiana.edu) for further information. We will be doing informal interviews at the Academy of Management Conference in Chicago, so if you wish to meet with search committee members at AOM, please submit an application as soon as possible (no reference letters are required at this stage of the application process).

Management & Entrepreneurship Department

The non-tenure track position is within the Management & Entrepreneurship Department in the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University (<https://kelley.iu.edu/Management/index.html>). The faculty group has an internationally renowned group of entrepreneurship scholars including Jeff Covin, Jeff McMullen, Donald F. Kuratko, Tricia McDougall, David Audretsch, Greg Fisher, Regan Stevenson, Blake Mathias, Trent Williams, Matt Josefy, Eric Zhao, and Ernest O'Boyle. The department is located in the main campus of Indiana University (Bloomington) and offers the following degrees in entrepreneurship & corporate innovation: Bachelors, MBA, MS, and PhD.

The Management & Entrepreneurship Department is one of eight academic departments in the Kelley School of Business. IU's Kelley School of Business is one of the leading business schools in the world located in Bloomington, IN. Indiana University is a member of the Big-10 Conference. IU's Entrepreneurship Program has achieved top national rankings (including the #1 public university for entrepreneurship at both the undergraduate and graduate levels) and numerous global and national honors. The Entrepreneurship Program efforts emanate from the Johnson Center for Entrepreneurship and Innovation, which is the academic support arm across the campus. Please visit the center website for further information on all of the entrepreneurship efforts: (<https://kelley.iu.edu/jcei/>).

Position Ad:

The Department of Management and Entrepreneurship at Indiana University, Kelley School of Business seeks applications for open rank non-tenure track faculty positions, effective fall 2019 with the possibility of a January 2019 start. The ideal candidate would have experience teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. For a candidate to be considered at the Clinical rank, a Ph.D., DBA degree or ABD status, in a relevant field, from a nationally reputed university is required, as well as significant professional experience. The major teaching responsibilities involve Entrepreneurship.

To ensure consideration, applications should be received by September 1, 2018, however, the search will continue until the positions are filled. Interested applicants should review position requirements and apply to the following link:

<http://indiana.peopleadmin.com/postings/6160>

Indiana University is an equal employment and affirmative action employer and a provider of ADA services. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, ethnicity, color, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or identity, marital status, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status. Indiana University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and activities, including employment and admission, as required by Title IX. Indiana University's non-discrimination statement is found in policy UA-01 at <http://www.policies.iu.edu>. Questions or complaints regarding Title IX may be referred to the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights or the university Title IX Coordinator. The address for Indiana University's Title IX Coordinator is: 400 E. 7th Street, Poplars 833, Bloomington, IN 47405. The Annual Security Reports, containing policy statements and crime statistics for Indiana University campuses, are available through Public Safety and the IU Police Department web sites at protect.iu.edu/police-safety/annual-reports/index.html. A paper copy will be provided upon request from Public Safety at iups@iu.edu.