

Assistant Professor at Warwick Business School

Warwick Business School is a research-led, triple-accredited university-based business school with a portfolio of world-class programmes.

We are continuing our search for top-flight talent to join our outstanding faculty. Applications are invited at the level of Assistant Professor in Entrepreneurship and Innovation.

We are looking for an internationally oriented, ambitious yet collegial early career scholar who will contribute to the existing lines of research within the Entrepreneurship and Innovation Group.

We especially welcome applications from entrepreneurship researchers with a strong disciplinary background in management or psychology and an interest in cognitive aspects of entrepreneurship and/or creativity.

The successful candidate will have completed or will be near the completion of their doctoral studies, and will need to have a demonstrable capacity to publish at the very top level and also an ambitious future research agenda. Evidence of an emerging record of publishing in high quality academic journals would be an advantage.

Athena SWAN Bronze Award

At Warwick Business School we are committed to supporting staff to achieve their potential. The School currently holds the Athena SWAN Bronze Award and the University of Warwick holds an Institutional Silver Award: a national initiative that recognizes the advancement of gender equality, representation, progression and success for all in academia. We are supportive of staff with caring responsibilities including a generous maternity/paternity/adoption/parental leave policy, onsite childcare facilities and the childcare vouchers scheme.

We strongly endorse the principles of Athena Swan, including a supportive and flexible working environment, with commitment from all levels of the organisation in promoting gender equity.

We are an equal opportunities employer and would consider part time and full time appointments.
